The first has to do with Peter's response when Jesus said Peter would deny Him three times before the rooster crowed once - or twice. Let's look at how that's presented in each of the Gospels. Matthew. Mt 26:31 Then Jesus told them, "This very night you will all fall away on account of me, for it is written:

Before the rooster crows, but was it once or twice? — God ...

Peter then denied again; and immediately a rooster crowed. After his three denials of Christ, Peter will be restored via his three affirmations of love which follow the Resurrection (21:15-17). As we enter into the Lenten season, the lectionary skips forward to Peter's denial of Jesus.

Peter then denied again; and immediately a rooster crowed and immediately the cock crew; the second time; which was a signal by which he might call to remembrance, what Christ had said to him; that before the cock crowed twice, he should deny him thrice, Mark 14:72. It was now early in the morning, about three o'clock, or somewhat after. (s) Misn. Bava Kama, c. 8, sect. 6. Vid. L'Empereur in ib.
